WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCT. 28, 1903.

LOCAL NEWS.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:32 a. m. and sets 5:08 p. m. High water at 1:06 a. m. and 1:33 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight and Thursday; fresh westerly winds.

A Distressing Accident.

Early last night Mr. George Washington was knocked down by a north-bound freight train of the Washington Southern Railway at the intersection of King and Fayette streets and his right arm terribly crushed. His head was also seriously injured. The unfortunate man was carried to the Alexandria Hospital where his arm was amputated and his head dressed by Dr. Smith, assisted by Dr. Purvis. The circumstances in connection with the accident are as follows: Mr. Washington, who was in no condition to take care of himself, started from the corner of King and Commerce streets, for the northeast corner of King and Fayette streets, and before he reached the railroad track the gateman, Mr. E. L. Cornell, started to lower the gates as the train approached. Mr. Washington made no attempt to stop and the gateman called to him to halt. Instead of heeding the warning, Mr. Washington returned a defiant answer, and proceeded to a point a few feet south of the gates and on the east side of the track near enough to be struck by the train and knocked down. He fell with the lower part of his right arm on the track, over which the cars passed, crushing the limb fearfully. A number of people ran to his assistance and he was finally picked up and conveyed to the hospital where, as stated above, it was necessary to amputate his arm above the elbow. Mr. Washington is a well known Alexandrian, and the fact that he has become the victim of such a sad accident is much regretted. He was resting easy this morning.

Additional Train Service on Southern.

On November 1st the Southern Railway Company will put into service a new train, No. 33, leaving Washington at 9:00 p. m., arriving at Charlotte at 9:00 a. m. the following morning; and train No. 34, in reverse direction, will leave Charlotte at 9:00 p. m., and arrive in Washington 10:15 a. m. These trains will make local stops at Manassas, Culpeper, Orange and Chatham, Pullman sleeper and coach between Washington and Charlotte, will have connections for Columbia, Augusta and Savannah, Ga. The New York and Atlanta Express, No. 39, now leaving Washington at 9:00 p. m. will be changed to leave Washington at 7:00 p. m., arriving at Charlotte at 6:55 a. m., Spartanburg 10:08 a. m. and Atlanta 4:33 p. m. the following day, carrying Pullman sleeper from Washington to Atlanta and Columbus, Ga. This train will make local stops at Fairfax, Manassas, Culpeper, Remington, Culpeper, Orange, Auhurst, Lawyers Road (flag) and Franklin Junction; also at Chatham for passengers from Washington and points east. No. 37, the Washington and Southern Western Limited, leaving Washington at 10:45 p. m. will carry New York and Augusta sleeper as at present.

River Notes.

The schooner Henry Sutton, from Walton, N. S., with plaster to the Bryant Fertilizer Company, arrived last night. She was boarded this morning by Dr. Arthur Snowden, of the marine hospital service, and given a clean bill of health. Another schooner loaded with plaster for W. A. Smoot & Co., is in the river.

The tug George W. Pride, which is towing said-laden scows for the Columbia Sand Company of Washington, is reported to have been disabled while down the river Monday and was towed into port by the tug J. T. Seelman for necessary repair work.

The extension of the bulkhead and the rebuilding of Mr. John R. Zimmerman's wharf at this city is now being completed, and the new wharf will be ready for service by the end of the week. Forty feet has been added to the wharf, making it one of the finest structures on the river.

The tugboat Minerva is on the ways at the shipyard for repairs.

Circus Tomorrow.

Visitors to the Sig Sautelle new big three-ring, 28-car railroad circus, which will exhibit in this city tomorrow afternoon and night, should not fail to make a tour of the horse fair annex. Lovers and admirers of blooded stock will find an hour of genuine pleasure and much to interest them. Inspecting the herds of horses and ponies. All last winter agents were in different parts of the world making purchases for this department. These men had instructions to buy the finest specimens obtainable regardless of cost. As a result Mr. Sautelle today possesses one of the largest and finest collections of representative members of the equine family that wealth can secure, and it is doubtful if its like was ever placed upon public exhibition before. Ladies and children are particularly invited to visit this grand display of horseflesh, which they may safely do without escort, as uniformed and courteous attendants are always present to look after their welfare.

"A Woman's Love."

Another crowded house greeted Conroy and Mack and their company at the Opera House last night to witness the production of "A Woman's Love," a four-act comedy drama of southern life. The performance, as was that of Monday night, was well rendered in every respect, each member coming in for hearty applause. The villain, Dick Mack, was continually hissed during the performance, thus showing the appreciation of his work, which was excellent. The specialties last night were better than those of Monday night, especially the illustrated songs, the wire walking and the Hebrew act. The attraction to-night will be "The Lights of Gotham," a story of New York life. The scenery for this drama is the largest carried by the company, and the piece the best in the repertoire. Friday night will be another night, and a large number of the talent of this city have entered the contest for the prize of $5.

Alexandria Council, Royal Arcanum, held a meeting last night. Considerable business interesting to the order was transacted. The 4 Leopold Benheim, whose death occurred a week, was a member of the Royal Arcanum.

Personal.

The Washington correspondent of the Richmond News-Leader says: "It is announced on good authority that Judge C. E. Nicol is grooming for a fight with Congressman Rixey for his seat in the house of representatives. It is stated that the judge thinks of retiring from the bench to accept the presidency of a banking and trust company, which is to be organized in Alexandria, and that the people who are interested in this project are backing Judge Nicol's candidacy."

Mr. W. A. Merchant, West Indian manager for R. G. Dun & Co., left on the 13th instant on the P. & O. steamer for a business trip to New York. During his absence Mr. J. Ellis Norris will act in his place. [Havana Post.] Mr. Merchant and Mr. Norris are both Alexandrians.

Among the sponsors at the meeting of the Confederate Veterans in Newport News today is Miss Eleanor French, of this city, for the Second Brigade Sons of Veterans.

Capt. W. A. Smoot left last night for Newport News to attend the meeting of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of which he is past Grand Commander. The announcement made at Christ Church last Sunday that Bishop Rescharch of Honolulu would deliver an address in that church this week has been recalled, as the bishop will be unable to visit the city at this time.

Rev. John M. Kendrick, D. D., Bishop of New Mexico and Arizona, will preach at Grace Church tonight at 7:45 o'clock.

Miss Lida Watters will entertain the Golf Club at her home from 4 to 6 this evening in honor of Miss Lippitt, of Berryville.

Capt. R. H. Atkinson, who was recently appointed a Game Warden, has declined to accept the position.

Mr. J. R. Caton has returned from Richmond, where he has been engaged for some time on the legislative revision committee, the labors of which have been completed. The work of the committee, which was necessarily long and laborious, is now in the hands of the printer.

Mr. Geo. D. Johnston will leave tomorrow for New York, where he will be located hereafter. He will take with him the best wishes of his many friends for success in his new field.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Newton have returned from their wedding trip to Charleston, W. Va.

Alexandria Library.

The following books have been added to the Alexandria Library: "The Mississippi Bubble," by Booth Tarkington; "The Pearl Maiden," by Rider Haggard; "The Maids of Paradise," by R. W. Chambers; "The Under Dog," by J. Hopkinson Smith; "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," by John Fox; "Four Years Under Mars Robert," by Major R. Stiles; "Transfiguration of Miss Philura," by F. M. Kingsley; "A Gentleman of France," by Stanley Wayman.

Suit Entered.

Mr. S. G. Brent, attorney for Osceola Tribe of Red Men, today entered suit in this city for that tribe against the Alexandria Perpetual Building Association and the German Co-operative Building Association No. 5 to recover the amount of money paid by these associations in redeeming stock held by the late George W. Dix. The Red Men contend that the money should have been paid to them, as the stock redeemed was held by Mr. Dix as their treasurer.

No Dull Season.

A leading tailoring company in St. Louis runs, the year round, a single-column attractive advertisement in the best newspapers. "In a dull season," said the manager, "we increase our advertising, using more than twice the usual space at least three times a week. The result is that our dull season is only a name. Often the increased business compares favorably with that of the 'rush' period."—[Phila. Record.]

Suit for Wife's Support.

Mrs. Martha L. Stewart yesterday instituted proceedings in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia against her husband, James Stewart, to compel him to properly support her. They were married at Alexandria, in April, 1901.

MEDICINAL.

They All Say So.

Not only in Alexandria but in every city and town in the Union.

If the reader took the time and trouble to ask his fellow resident of Alexandria the simple question given below, he would obtain the one answer. If he would read the statements now being published in the Alexandria Gazette, he would find the answer. As many more could be given, and they would be published, but the meaning of the first person you meet who asks you the question is the answer will be Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a citizen who endorses our claim:

Fred R. Jackson, baker, of 333 North Patrick street, says: "When a man is subject to dull pains in the small of his back which are always intensified by an exertion, it does not require the improper action of the secretion from the kidneys to tell him that in some way those organs need attention. With the passing of time other complications become apparent and distress in my stomach, the treatment was a common occurrence. The treatment of leading physicians, even that given by a well-known hospital and the use of medicine unobtainably guaranteed to cure kidney complaint, failed to even bring relief. I never would have gone to E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drugstore for Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy acted differently from anything else I ever tried. The pain and inflammation of the bladder gradually lessened and as the organs improved indirectly my trouble was benefited. From the results I received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, I have not the slightest hesitation in very emphatically endorsing them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Andrew Limpink, 40 years old, and Edward Farroth, both colored, employed on the work of constructing the Long Bridge, were drowned by the capsizing of a small boat this afternoon.

An electric car got off the track near Spring Park early last night which delayed traffic for some time. A number of passengers on incoming trains left the cars and walked from the scene of the run-off.

There will be preaching tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Adventist Hall, 116 south St. Asaph street. The subject will be, "Who did not the people recognize Christ at his first advent?"

The church and social to be given by the Young Men's Sodality, Lyceum tomorrow evening promises to be a delightful affair and many handsome prizes have been donated. One of the trucks on the Western line steamer Northumberland fell overboard here yesterday evening and had a narrow escape from drowning before he was rescued.

The residence of Mr. William Moore on Duke street was entered last night by thieves and robbed of sundry articles, including some money.

On and after November 3 the Alexandria Library will be open on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays from 7 to 9 p. m.

The Associated Charities of this city will meet at Lee Camp Hall at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court this morning.

The Modern Woodmen of America will hold a smoker tonight.

One lodger was at the station house last night.

The weather is still fair and cool.

REMARKED.—A domestic tragedy spanning half a century of time had a climax in San Francisco, in the marriage of a couple divorced forty-four years ago, and reunited through the efforts of their sons. Their separation and divorce were the result of a quarrel five years after their young wedding life began, when both were fighting life's battles in Lake county, Ill. In the autumn of life, when both had passed three score and ten years, they agreed to forget past difference and resume the old ties.

Only a Very Few Published.

It is not possible for the proprietors to publish more than a few of the numerous letters received in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy and telling of its remarkable cures. They come from people in every walk in life and from every state in the Union. The following from Mr. T. W. Greathouse, of Prattburg, Ga., speaks for itself: "I would have been dead now but for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me of chronic diarrhoea after several years of suffering. I can never say too much in praise of that remedy." For sale by Richard Gibson.

A Perfect Painless Pill

is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clear the complexion, cure headache and leaves a good taste in the mouth. The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectually are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Bob Moore of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used griped and sickened, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by all druggists.
